Frequency: Weekly Course, Wed 11:30 - 13:00

Location: Glenhuntly Red Room 1151 Glenhuntly Road

Tutor: Henry Erlich

Our parents journey from the Yiddish civilization through the holocaust to the distant world of Melbourne, where even the sun shone from the wrong side. The journey is examined by looking at poetry, songs, stories by the great writers, religion as well as questions I asked in about thirty interviews. Examples of the questions are: How did you manage to get on with your life after what you went through? Can it happen again. What does Israel mean to you? Why do you remain a Jew? What is a Jew? Is luck more important than character?
